Live, Study and Play in Auckland

Auckland is New Zealand's largest city and is surrounded by harbours and beaches. Auckland is often referred to as the 'City of Sails' due to the fact the harbour is often full of yachts.

Auckland is consistently ranked one of the world's best places to live, not just for its huge variety of activities, but for its people, cleanliness, infrastructure and climate. There is also a full calendar of events year round, including cultural festivals, sports events, concerts and theatre performances.

Auckland is home to more than 400 schools and institutions, including three internationally ranked universities – more than any other city in New Zealand.

Why Study in Auckland?

Quality of life: Auckland is ranked 3rd best city in the world to live by the Mercer Quality of Living Survey, 2016

City Lifestyle: In Auckland you get the best big city style and a stunning natural playground. Where else can you go sailing, horse riding, hiking, surfing, paddle boarding or mountain biking all within an hour of a bustling, modern city?

Financial Powerhouse: As New Zealand's financial and economic powerhouse, skilled people are in demand and opportunities are growing in many sectors

Student Centre: New Zealand's most popular destination for international students

Gateway: Second largest airport in Australasia by volume with 120+ flights per day

Cambridge Exam Preparation

Cambridge English exams are accepted by over 15,000 universities, employers and governments around the world. Cambridge exams can open doors to higher education, improve employment opportunities, and because they are globally recognised, can increase learners' choices for study or work.

Campbell's Cambridge Preparation course prepares students for sitting the Cambridge Advanced Certificate (CAE). The course achieves a balance of language development and exam preparation, both of which are necessary for achieving good results.

Cambridge teachers receive additional training to prepare students for the exam. Students have access to a large range of exam practice materials, and every week students can sit a practice exam, under exam conditions.

Every student at Campbell has the opportunity for weekly 1:1 support with a teacher at no extra cost.

After completing this course students will be able to:

- Communicate confidently in English in a range of real-life situations
- Think critically about issues and express personal opinions
- Enter the exam with an increased level of proficiency and confidence

The Campbell Institute offers English language pathway programmes for entry into university foundation studies and diploma programmes in Wellington and Auckland.

Campbell Direct Foundation Stream:

The Campbell Institute is the preferred English language pathway provider to Victoria University of Wellington’s Foundation Studies Programme*. Graduates of the Foundation Studies Programme are guaranteed entry to Victoria University of Wellington’s undergraduate degree courses.

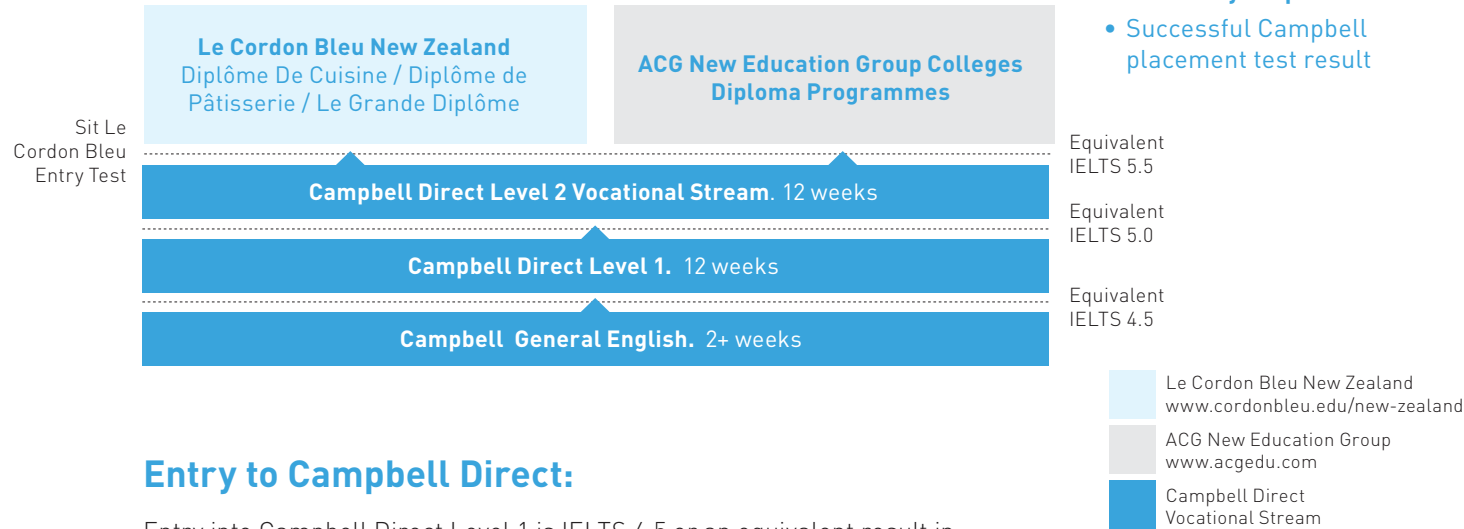

Campbell Direct Foundation Stream focusses on English for Academic Purposes. It is run as an afternoon module and together with IELTS Examination Preparation in the morning, makes up a full-time study programme. Campbell Direct Foundation Stream is designed for students who need to demonstrate that they have the required English to enter Victoria University’s Foundation Studies Programme.

*The Victoria University Foundation Programme is administered by ACG Pathways.

Campbell Direct Vocational Stream:

The Campbell Institute provides non-IELTS English language pathways into a range of vocational training courses offered by ACG's New Education Group. Members of the New Education Group include Yoobee School of Design, New Zealand School of Tourism, NZMA, New Zealand Institute of Sport, AMES- The Institute of IT, and Animation School. In addition, Campbell offers a non-IELTS English language pathway into Diplôme courses at Le Cordon Bleu New Zealand.

Entry to Campbell Direct:

Entry into Campbell Direct Level 1 is IELTS 4.5 or an equivalent result in Campbell's internal placement test administered on the first day of study. Most students enrolled in Campbell Direct will undertake General English before being accepted into the programme.

A student who successfully completes Campbell Direct Level 1 gains access to Victoria University of Wellington's one year 'Standard Plus' Foundation Studies programme OR Campbell Direct Level 2.

A student who successfully completes Campbell Direct Level 2 gains access to Victoria University of Wellington's nine month 'Standard' Foundation Studies programme OR Campbell Direct Level 3 OR Diploma level programmes at Campbell's partner colleges.

A student who successfully completes Campbell Direct Level 3 gains access to Victoria University of Wellington's six month 'Fast Track' programme.

Each Campbell Direct Level runs for 12 weeks.

“Because I wanted to study at Le Cordon Bleu, my teachers recommended Campbell Direct. I felt comfortable at Campbell because there were students from many different countries and the teachers were kind and helped me a lot with my English.”

Studying at a New Zealand high school can be challenging, particularly for students in the senior years. Often the biggest challenge for international students is not the subject content, but the English language environment. Therefore, once students have started their high school programme it is important for them to continue to improve their English over the course of their entire high school programme.

The High School Holiday is a fixed two-week course run each school holiday break during the academic year. It is run as a part time morning English course and full time programme consisting of morning tuition and afternoon activity programme. Students study

English in the mornings with a focus on academic writing, general communication skills, or preparation for the IELTS examination. In the afternoons, students will join an activity programme which may include museum and art galleries, Weta Workshop, Zealandia, hiking, kayaking, board game cafes, and other fun activities.

While on this course you will:

- Focus on building vocabulary
- Identify any grammar weaknesses
- Improve academic writing skills
- Improve communication skills
- Make international friends and have fun

If you are looking for a job in a café, hotel or restaurant in New Zealand, having a barista certificate will give you a strong advantage in our coffee crazy country!

The Campbell Institute has partnered with Flight Coffee, one of New Zealand's leading coffee companies, to develop a certificate programme that gives students an industry-based qualification.

The course includes:

- Background knowledge of coffee
- The language of coffee
- Practical training on coffee machines in a café environment
- Communication skills in the workplace

There is a great choice of English study options including General English, IELTS or Cambridge Exam Preparation and Campbell Direct courses that can be taken as part of the Campbell Barista Training programme.

Cambridge CELTA Course

The CELTA course (The University of Cambridge Certificate in English Language Teaching to Adults) is a practical, hands-on, English teaching qualification.

Administered by Cambridge University ESOL, CELTA is a standardised course, which means that you can take the course anywhere in the world, cover the same syllabus, and be assessed by the same criteria. Therefore a pass on the CELTA course is recognised throughout the world regardless of where it is studied.

CELTA is an initial teaching qualification, so no previous teaching experience is required. CELTA is also popular with those who have some teaching experience, but no formal qualification.

The CELTA course provides candidates with a mix of hands-on teaching experience, teaching methodology and practical classroom techniques.

Applications and selection are continuous, and are processed as they arrive. Don't miss out by applying late! Depending on the number of applicants there may be a waiting list.

We hold regular CELTA information evenings. For more information contact us:

Accommodation

Your home away from home

Good accommodation is just as important as the place you study.

Campbell will take responsibility for your accommodation, personally selecting the best available homestays and apartments, and helping you with questions and advice on the best accommodation option for you.

Homestay

Why choose a homestay?

- Your homestay family will take care of you from the day you arrive
- Experience and learn about New Zealand cultures
- Practise your English with your homestay family
- Live in a real home - no need to buy furniture, bedding, or kitchenware
- You will have your own bedroom
- Develop a network of New Zealand friends and acquaintances
- Available for all ages

Homestay fees include:

- Your own bedroom with study desk and chair, wardrobe, drawers, and a heater
- Internet (additional fees may apply for heavy usage)
- Power, water, local phone calls
- Full board (breakfast and dinner on weekdays, and three daily meals on weekends included)

All Campbell homestay families have been personally assessed and chosen by The Campbell Institute, and each family has a contractual obligation to meet certain standards. For example, hosts are required to provide a warm and comfortable bedroom, and a friendly family environment.

Homestay is generally booked week by week, but additional nights can also be booked if necessary. Campbell homestay placement fees include 1 free change of family, if needed.

Travel from homestay to Campbell is usually by bus, and average travel times are 25-35 minutes each way.

The Campbell Institute is a signatory to the New Zealand Government's Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students. Under The Code, homestay providers must be vetted by the New Zealand Police, and visited regularly to ensure the homestay environment is suitable.

Airport Transfers

Campbell provides an airport transfer service. A school representative, or your homestay family, will meet you at the airport, and take you to your arranged accommodation. We also provide an emergency contact in case you have any problems during your travel, such as delays, or missed connections.

“ I love my host family. They make me feel at home. My English has improved a lot thanks to homestay! ”
